

JOHN WORRELL

CCIM

Associate Director

CENTRAL FLORIDA
OFFICE (CFO)
TEAM

Experience

John is an Associate Director at Cite Partners and has been a member of the Central Florida Office (CFO) Team with Jamie Barati since 2015. John specializes in representing office real estate tenants and investors in the Central Florida Market. His passion for creating long lasting relationships along with his attention to detail lend support to growing the CFO Team into the premier office brokerage team in the greater Orlando area. His background as a commercial real estate lender provides the skills necessary to analyze property economics and helps tenants and owners alike make prudent decisions when it comes their real estate investments.

Background

John has been active in the Central Florida commercial real estate industry for over a decade. Prior to joining Cite Partners, John was the Vice President of Commercial Real Estate Lending with the Orlando office of TD Bank since 2012. He has extensive experience in the origination of debt and equity as it relates to commercial real estate transactions. He is well versed in the financial analysis of commercial real estate investments and has worked with developers, owner-users, and institutional clients to match their various financing needs. Prior to TD Bank, John was a credit analyst and subsequently a producer for the Orlando office of Thomas D. Wood and Company beginning in 2005.
