Experience

John is a Director at Cite Partners and specializes in Retail Investment Sales. Between his corporate experience at Marcus & Millichap and his legal background, John is able to supplement Cite Partners' client centric approach to business, to property owners and buyers to ensure they are receiving the best service possible. John has an outstanding work ethic and is dedicated to helping his clients accomplish their real estate goals. He takes a personal interest in understanding their long-term and short-term goals to help develop a plan for their investments.

Background

Prior to joining Cite Partners, John was a Retail Specialist for two years with Marcus & Millichap of Orlando, where he focused on Single-Tenant Net-Leased assets. He graduated from IONA College in New Rochelle, NY with a BA in Political Science as well as Criminal Justice. John then attended Chicago-Kent College of Law, where he earned his JD degree with a focus on Real Estate and Business Law. While living in Chicago and attending law school, John started a successful real estate tax reduction and redemption company, which had 100% success rate in earning all his clients a reduction or redemption. John also served as a law clerk for 4 years handling various real estate and business related law matters. John and his wife Ashley are involved with Big Brothers & Big Sisters of Central Florida and they live in Orlando.
