Experience

Daniel is a Senior Associate on the Central Florida Retail Team and has just joined Cite Partners. He excels in both retail tenant and landlord side transactions and has helped his team in procuring and keeping business. Growing up in Maitland and Winter Park gives Daniel a strong advantage with his extremely thorough knowledge of the Central Florida retail market. His ability to work with anyone to get the deal done, along with his work ethic and determination, are strong assets to the Retail Team and to Cite Partners. Daniel's team-player mentality really shows as he is willing to do whatever it takes to push himself, his team, and especially his clients, to a high level of success and achievement.

Background

Before joining the Central Florida Retail Team at Cite Partners, Daniel was an associate at BluRock Commercial Real Estate. He received his BS in English Literature and Psychology from Florida State University and has held a wide variety of jobs before excelling in the commercial real estate field
